SCOUTING REPORT ON HECTOR GENAO: Hector Genao is a complete role player. His game does not consist of dominant scoring or flashy moves, but simply put, he gets the job done. He is more than willing to do whatever the team needs in order to win. Hector is a speedy guard that can really push the tempo and create opportunities for himself and his teammates. He has a solid mid-range shot and excels at playing off of the ball. He is proficient in moving without the basketball to find lanes and backdoor opportunities to convert easy layups. On the defensive end, he will pressure the basketball and cause a lot of turnovers with his lockdown defense. Hector is a very effective rebounder from the guard position. This, along with his knack for getting himself positioned in the lane and taking charges, displays both his mental and physical toughness, as well as the measures he takes in order to help his team win games.
