SCOUTING REPORT ON JOSH BROWN:

Josh Brown is a 6'4 guard. His three-point shooting and his mid-range jumper are the strongest part of his offensive game. He is a shooting guard that can easily play the point guard & small forward positions. Known as a 'team first' type of guy, he doesn't mind making the extra pass to get his teammates a better shot. He loves to drive the ball to the basket and create open shots for his teammates. When you see Josh play you would think he is taller than what he really is because of his athletic ability and the way he can rebound. Josh is a well rounded player who can play many different roles. He is a good ball defender and a great off the ball defender. Josh can dribble, drive and finish with either hand.
