SCOUTING REPORT ON LaDARIUS HORTON: LaDarius is a mild mannered, even-tempered, low-key team leader. He is easily underestimated by his opponents on the court, which gives his team the upper hand and an opportunity for him to work with his team to pull out a win. Because he does not possess a 'super star' attitude on or off the court LaDarius is able to watch and read the court with incredible accuracy, hear, understand and accept direction from the coach during practice and successfully execute learned skills during the games and he consistently finishes games as one of the top scorers and leader in assists. As a starting point guard and team captain LaDarius has been able to rally his teams when the chips are down and his never give up attitude leads by example both offensively and defensively.
